MURDER ATPULASKI. A Negro Shoots and Stabs His Brother-

Pulaski, Va., July 14, 1890.—
Our people were very much excited yesterday morning on learning that a terrible crime had been perpetrated on Saturday night. It seems that Henry Cephas, a highly respected colored man who has been working in the depot here for nearly ten years, went to his home at 6 o'clock Saturday evening, not thinking of any harm, but perhaps a little lonely as his wife some one knocked at his door and he got up. As he opened the door his wife's brother, a notorious wretch, struck him a terrible blow on the head with steel knuckles, which caused him to fall, and while on the evening. He was conscious all of the port, Va., vas in the city yesterday prospecting.

Mr. S. A. Rice, a well known Baltimore drummer is stopping at the murderer, Jones Carter, has a very bad reputation and has been before the courts several times. I learn he returned to his house after the shooting and told what he had done, and said he did not intend to leave town as he had a right to kill him. But up to this time no arrest has been made or even a warrant issued. As I have said what is the use of having officers if they do not attend to their business. I think it is a dis-grace on the town, and the people should take the matter in band and see that this scoundrel is brought to justice. We can't afford to let such crimes pass unnoticed.

I learn that several fights occurred on the Cripple Creek train yesterday evening on its return from Ivanhoe Springs.
